Description

The Theta Delta Chi Educational Foundation, Inc., awards scholarships annually, by competition, preferably for undergraduate study (graduate study will also be considered) at recognized institutions of higher learning. Applications are made available by April 1st each year with a completion deadline of June 15th of the same year.

Awards are usually made in the summer and are payable in October upon receipt of proof of registration for the current academic period. These awards are paid to the recipient in a lump sum.

Qualifications

Applications for Educational Foundation scholarships will be judged on the basis of the candidates' history of service to Theta Delta Chi Fraternity, their scholastic achievements and their financial need. Awards will not be reduced, nor applications denied, should the candidate obtain scholarship support from any other source.

Persons not actively performing service to Theta Delta Chi at the time of applying may be considered by petition.

Through scholarship, leadership and a responsible social life, the Brothers of Theta Delta Chi prepare each other to thrive in a changing world.

Application Checklist:

Candidates must return the attached form - together with supporting materials - by June 15. Letters of recommendation must be received by the committee by June 15.

- * Completed Scholarship Application.
- * An official transcript from each institution of higher learning where you have registered for coursework, signed by the Registrar, including your grades for the most recent completed term.
- * A typed letter to the Scholarship Committee indicating your reasons for seeking an award and including an explanation of your need for financial assistance; your achievements and honors in college; a description of your service to Theta Delta Chi Fraternity and elsewhere in your community, and a statement of your goals for the future. (Those who are not actively performing service to Theta Delta Chi at the time of applying should furnish an additional statement explaining why Theta Delta Chi should assist them.)
- * Two (2) Letters of Recommendation to be sent by the recommenders directly to the Scholarship Committee. These Letters should testify to your character and potential as a student and should be from someone, other than a member of your family, who knows you and your work. Letters from a dean or other college official, a professor, a Charge or house corporation officer, an alumni association, or an employer would be appropriate examples.

Note: No application that is incomplete as of the deadline will be read or considered by the Scholarship Committee. It is the applicant's obligation to ensure that all parts of the application are received by June 15. The committee will not notify candidates of missing application materials.
